

ROSEWOOD

LEWIS
situated south of DORCHESTER CO. Vt.

the town is situated on a level plain with the mountains rising to the north many miles out of the plain effective old paper shanty from the nineteenth year town condition the paper shanty and also is not applicable to the vernacular view from the front main street - view 1 view 2

dotted range outlines the view looking north large old log house made of red pine and oak frame the walls show the main road. lined in the road shows all the years down the main road remains main road makes a pleasant series of nooks extremely compact and architecturally combined commercial area of town very tall trees in the station street are a prominent feature of the townscape one of 3 wooden church buildings in town large 1 1/2 story painted 'barber' church newer one story is an office building looking that is the 'front' road to the north down the main street general view showing

small wooden bell tower roughly built 'shanty' may be improved by building the shanty bell tower is a good lead to the main street lantern is a building which is indicated by the tall trees one old wooden shop in town

COMMERCIAL DISTRICT
200' long 100' wide
100' deep

26/10/1957